

As you are aware Columbia County Resources are in the process of upgrading our rodeo arena to include a covered arena. We realize this project does not require a building permit, only an electrical permit. We would request Columbia County Building Department to still inspect the project to ensure quality and code compliance. Thank you in advance for your consideration of our request. If you need anything additional, please let me know.

Thank you,

Stephen E. Bailey

Stephen E. Bailey
President

