A hand is holding a small, rectangular blue card with rounded corners. The card has handwritten text in dark ink. The background is a close-up, high-angle view of a dark grey asphalt shingle roof. The roof has several ridges and valleys. In the upper left, a person is visible working on the roof. The background beyond the roof is filled with dense green trees.
