DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY

By this Durable Power of Attorney, I, ROLAND C. GILLEN, of Columbia County, Florida, appoint my wife, BETTY W. GILLEN, as my Agent (attorney-in-fact) to manage my affairs. 20. Have access to any and all of my medical records, medical history, billing and other information related to my medical care and to execute releases authorizing the disclosure of such information. For purposes of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act

(HIPAA), my Agent shall be considered my personal representative and shall have the authority to access and disclose my protected health information.

21. Enter any safe deposit box standing in my name (along or jointly), and to remove any or all contents.

My Agent shall also have the power to consent on my behalf to gift-splitting for gifts made by my spouse, regardless of the amount of such gifts.

RCB 26. My Agent shall have the powers initialed above notwithstanding the fact that in a particular case a power may allow the Agent to create in the Agent, or in an individual to whom the Agent owes a legal obligation of support, an interest in my property, whether by gift, right of survivorship, beneficiary designation, disclaimer, or otherwise, whether or not my Agent is an ancestor, spouse or descendant of mine.

The powers conferred upon my Agent extend to all of my right, title and interest in property in which I may have an interest jointly with any other persons, whether in an estate by the entireties, joint tenancy or tenancy in common.

Third parties who act in reliance upon the authority granted to my Agent under this Durable Power of Attorney and in accordance with the instructions of the Agent shall be, and are hereby, held harmless by me from any loss suffered or liability incurred as a result of actions taken prior to receipt of written notice of revocation, suspension, notice of a petition to determine incapacity, partial or complete termination, or death of me.

My Agent shall exercise this Durable Power of Attorney only for my benefit, and not to benefit my Agent (except as otherwise provided specifically herein, and then only consistent with my general testamentary intent).

My Agent shall not be liable for any acts or decisions made by the Agent in good faith and under the terms of this Durable Power of Attorney.

This instrument is executed by me in the State of Florida, but it is my intention that this power of attorney shall be exercisable in any other state or jurisdiction where I may have any property or interest in property, provided that my Agent shall have no right, power, authority or interest over or in any passive foreign investment company or any financial asset or account in a foreign financial institution unless my Agent affirmatively accepts that right, power, authority or interest in writing.

Copies of this instrument shall have the same force and effect as the original. This Power of Attorney revokes all prior powers of attorney given by me to any person or persons.

I hereby confirm all acts of my Agent pursuant to this power.

Any act that is done under this power between the revocation of this instrument and notice of that revocation to my Agent shall be valid unless the person claiming the benefit of the act had notice of that revocation.
