

RFP 2020-W
Regional Park Master Plan Development Services

Addendum 1
Change in Scope

Please see the following changes to the RFP.

- Section III. Scope of Work, Page 8 of 27
 - Original language: “It is the desire of the County that this portion of the master planning process include a qualified team with expertise in both land use planning for large parks and open space tracts and civil engineering design for infrastructure improvements.”
 - Amended language: “It is the desire of the County that this portion of the master planning process include a qualified team with expertise in both land use planning for large parks and open space tracts and design for infrastructure improvements.”

- Section IV. Specifications, Item 4, Page 9 of 27
 - Original language: “Furnish sufficient professional, technical, supervisory and administrative personnel to ensure the execution of the work, including, but not limited to, the disciplines of planning, landscape architecture, engineering and architecture, as needed.”
 - Amended language: “Furnish sufficient professional, technical, supervisory and administrative personnel to ensure the execution of the work as needed.”