Hi Melissa,

It is my understanding the permit #41491 has expired, however I didn't realize it was only 6 months.

The reason it took so long is it has been extremely difficult to find workers that actually show up and work and I went through several people to finally reach the point to be ready for final inspection,

There has been no changes to the structure of the home, just cosmetics, Paint, Flooring, Trim, Deck, Ect.

At this point I am ready for inspection. please help me if you can with the permit fee if possible?

Have a great day!
