- 10.7.3. The determination of the Trustee to pay such expenses and charges from the principal or income of the trust estate or partially from each shall be conclusive and binding on all persons in any manner interested in any trust created by or pursuant to this declaration.

10.8. ACCOUNTINGS.

- 10.8.1. The Trustee shall prepare an accounting for each fiscal year of the trust. The accounting shall include a report of the receipts, disbursements, and distributions since the last accounting and the status of the principal and any undistributed income on hand at the date of the accounting.

- 10.8.2. Whenever a Trustee ceases to serve, an accounting shall be prepared from the time of the last prior accounting through the end of the period of service.

- 10.8.3. The Trustee shall keep each accounting available for inspection by, and may deliver copies to, the beneficiaries eligible, within the period covered thereby, to receive benefits from the trust which is the subject of said accounting.

- 10.8.4. The written approval of an accounting by such beneficiary, or by his or her parent or guardian, if such beneficiary is a minor or otherwise incompetent, shall be final and binding as to all matters stated therein or shown thereby upon that beneficiary and upon all persons then, or thereafter, claiming any interest through or under him or her in the income or principal of such trust. Failure of such beneficiary, or of his or her parent or guardian, if such beneficiary is a minor or otherwise incompetent, to deliver to the Trustee written objection to an accounting within thirty (30) days after receipt thereof shall constitute the final and binding approval thereof by the beneficiary.

11. DISQUALIFICATION OF TRUSTEE

If any Trustee may be required to make a distribution, by reason of bankruptcy, insolvency, execution, levy, attachment, or seizure of any assets remaining in the hands of the Trustee under claims of creditors or otherwise, so that that part of such income or principal might fail to be enjoyed personally by any beneficiary or might vest in or be enjoyed by some other person, then that Trustee shall immediately be disqualified, and the rights, duties and powers of that Trustee shall terminate.

12. DISPUTES WITH SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES AND REMOVAL OF SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE

- 12.1. Any beneficiary, or successor trustee who, in good faith, believes any Successor Trustee, then acting as Trustee, has acted or failed to act consistent with the intents and wishes of the Grantor as expressed herein, may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction, challenging the actions or inaction of the Trustee. The court, upon hearing the facts and circumstances of the litigants, may award such relief as would be equitable, including but not limited to, ordering distribution of income or principal, or the removal of the Trustee.
- 12.2. The non-prevailing party in any litigation under this section shall bear the costs of litigation, including attorneys fees. Additionally, if the non-prevailing party is the Trustee, and the prevailing party establishes that the Trustee acted with gross negligence or wrongful intent, then the Trustee shall not be reimbursed for the costs of litigation.

13. RIGHTS AND POWER OF SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE.

Any successor trustee shall, upon succession as Trustee, acquire title to the trust estate and to all powers, rights, and discretion of the Trustee to the trust estate and to all powers, rights, discretions and immunities of the Trustee as provided in this declaration. A successor Trustee shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of a predecessor Trustee.

14. AMENDMENT OR REVOCATION OF TRUST, POWER OF APPOINTMENT.

14.1. BOTH GRANTORS CAPABLE.

- 14.1.1. While both Grantors are alive and serving as Co-Grantors, the Grantors may amend, alter, revoke, or terminate, in whole or in part, this trust, or any provisions hereof, by an instrument in writing signed by both Grantors and delivered to the Trustee.
- 14.1.2. While both Grantors are alive and serving as Co-Grantors, the Grantors may exercise the power of appointment by joint action, in writing, signed by both Grantors.
- 14.1.3. The trust may not be amended to change the obligations, duties, or rights of the Trustee without the written consent of the Trustee to such amendment.
- 14.1.4. If the entire trust is revoked by the Grantors, the Trustee shall transfer to the Grantors all of the trust estate and shall execute and deliver to the Grantors all instruments which are necessary or appropriate to release all interests of the Trustee in the trust.

14.2. ON INCAPACITY OF ONE GRANTOR.

If one of the spouses becomes incapacitated for any of the reasons set forth in sections 3.2.1. to 3.2.5. the surviving spouse may exercise all powers of the Grantors, including the powers of amendment, revocation, and appointment, in the spouses individual capacity.

14.3. ON INCAPACITY OF BOTH GRANTORS.

From and after the death or incapacity of both Grantors, the trust shall become irrevocable and shall not be altered or amended.

14.4. UNECONOMICAL OR IMPRACTICABLE TRUST.

If at any time the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole and absolute discretion, shall determine that the trust estate or any share thereof, held under this declaration, is for any reason uneconomical or impractical to administer, or does not amount to at least $50,000 in value at any time, the said Trustee shall have the right to pay out to the beneficiary, then entitled to the income there from, the then remaining principal and accumulated income of such trust estate or share thereof.

15. CONSTRUCTION OF TRUST.

15.1. TERMS.

- 15.1.1. "Assets" – see "Trust Assets"

- 15.1.2. "Beneficiary" – those persons or organizations with a present, future or contingent beneficial interest in the trust estate.
- 15.1.3. "Children" – if used in this instrument, shall connote both blood relationship and relationship by adoption.
- 15.1.4. "Effective Date" – the earlier of the date:
- 15.1.4.1. assets are first transferred pursuant to this instrument;
 - 15.1.4.2. this instrument was executed;
 - 15.1.4.3. any trust declaration or trust agreement which is amended by this document was executed.
- 15.1.5. "Grantor" – the person or persons establishing or executing this document
- 15.1.6. "Interested Party" any beneficiary named in section 5, any specifically named trustee named in section 4, or any judicially appointed trustee under this agreement or declaration.
- 15.1.7. "Issue"- if used in this instrument, shall connote both blood relationship and relationship by adoption.
- 15.1.8. "Special Beneficiary" – any person or organization identified under section 5.2. whose beneficial interest is subject, or will be subject, to the provisions of section 9.
- 15.1.9. "Spouse" – shall denote only the individual to whom the Grantor is legally married to at the execution of this document. Divorce or legal separation subsequent to the execution of this document, irrevocably terminates the spouse's interest as if the spouse had predeceased the Grantor. Subsequent termination of a legal separation or remarriage of divorced spouses DOES NOT reinstate the spouse, absent a conforming amendment to this declaration.
- 15.1.10. "Surviving spouse," "Surviving Grantor," "Surviving Trustee" – in the case of spouses serving as Co-Grantors or Co-Trustees, the spouse still able to perform the functions of the relevant office:
- 15.1.10.1. Upon the death of the other spouse, or
 - 15.1.10.2. Upon the resignation of the other spouse, or
 - 15.1.10.3. In the event the other spouse is judicially declared incompetent, or
 - 15.1.10.4. In the event two licensed physicians give written opinions that the other spouse is incapable of acting, or 15.1.10.5. In the event a licensed psychologist or licensed psychiatrist gives a written opinion that the other spouse is incapable of acting.

15.1.11. "Trustee" - unless indicated otherwise in the context, the Trustee is the person then acting as Trustee.

15.1.12. "Trust Assets" - any beneficial rights owed or owing to the Trust, including, but not limited to: real property, personal property, tangible and intangible assets, choses in action, rights to principal and income.

15.1.13. "Trust" or "Trust Estate" - the assets, liabilities and equities owed or owing to and from the Trust.

15.2. GENDER AND NUMBER.

15.2.1. Any words or phrases which may be read to denote one gender in preference to, or in exclusion of another gender, shall be construed in a gender neutral fashion.

15.2.2. Except where the context indicates otherwise, words in the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

15.3. APPLICABLE LAW.

The trust created by this declaration has been accepted by the Trustee in the State of Florida, will be administered by the Trustee in said State and the validity, construction, and all rights under this declaration shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida.

15.4. SEVERABILITY.

Should any provisions of this declaration be or become invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this declaration shall be and continue to be fully effective.

15.5. HEADINGS, TITLES AND NUMBERING

Headings, titles, and numbering within this declaration are solely for convenience and in no way limit or effect the construction of this declaration.

16. TERMINATION.

This trust shall terminate upon completion of the distribution of trust assets to the beneficiaries or their successors in interest.

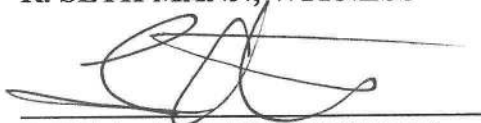

17. NOTICES.

Any notices of any communication required or permitted by this declaration to be delivered to or served on the Trustee shall be deemed properly delivered to, served on, and received by the Trustee when personally delivered to the Trustee or, in lieu of such personal service, when deposited in the United States mail, certified mail with postage prepaid, addressed to the Trustee at: POST OFFICE BOX 135, SAN ANTONIO, FL 33576.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Grantors and Trustees have executed this instrument, in the presence of each other and the presence of the subscribing witnesses.
