DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

FOR OWNER/BUILDER WHEN ACTING AS THEIR OWN CONTRACTOR AND CLAIMING EXEMPTION OF CONTRACTOR LICENSING REQUIREMENTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH FLORIDA STATUTES, ss. 489.103(7).

State law requires construction to be done by licensed contractors. You have applied for a permit under an exemption to that law. The exemption allows you, as the owner of your property, to act as your own contractor with certain restrictions even though you do not have a license. You must provide direct, onsite supervision of the construction yourself. You may build or improve a one-family or two-family residence or a farm outbuilding. You may also build or improve a commercial building, provided your costs do not exceed $25,000. The building or residence must be for your own use or occupancy. It may not be built or substantially improved for sale or lease. If you sell or lease a building you have built or substantially improved yourself within 1 year after the construction is complete, the law will presume that you built or substantially improved it for sale or lease, which is a violation of this exemption. You may not hire an unlicensed person to act as your contractor or to supervise people working on your building. It is your responsibility to make sure that people employed by you have licenses required by state law and by county or municipal licensing ordinances. You may not delegate the responsibility for supervising work to a licensed contractor who is not licensed to perform the work being done. Any person working on your building who is not licensed must work under your direct supervision and must be employed by you, which means that you must deduct F.I.C.A. and withholding tax and provide workers' compensation for that employee, all as prescribed by law. Your construction must comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, building codes, and zoning regulations.

Affidavit

Description of Property: Lot 75, Callaway Subdivision Phase III, a subdivision according to the plat thereof as recorded in Plat Book 7, Pages 145-146 of the public records of Columbia County, Florida

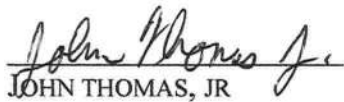

911 Address: 236 SW Stafford Court
Lake City, FL 32024

Owner: John and Rebecca Thomas
424 SW Alamo Drive
Lake City, FL 32025

Contractor: Chad White
CK Contracting
1400 NE State Road 47
Trenton, FL 32693

This affidavit is to attest that the above-mentioned property was purchased with the intention of constructing a dwelling for us to occupy. However, due to the loss of a child, our current financial instability, and many other uncertainties in family circumstances we cannot occupy this dwelling as originally planned. CK Contracting was retained for this project. All subcontractors hired to perform work on this property are licensed with Workers' Compensation and liability insurance.

Therefore we are asking consideration in waiving the owner builder exemption so this property can be sold to satisfy the cost of constructing.

Re: Thomas Property

Dear John:

As you are aware, Florida Statute 489.103(7) provides that if an owner acquires a permit for the construction of their home and then sell or lease the home within one (1) year after the construction is complete, the law presumes that the home was built for sale or lease, which is in violation of the statutory exemption. However, in the home regarding John and Rebecca Thomas, you have received an affidavit that the homeowners purchased the property with the intention of constructing the dwelling for their personal occupancy. However, due to circumstances beyond their control during the construction of the home, their plans changed and they will be unable to occupy the dwelling as originally planned.

Since the above cited statute provides the law will "presume" the home was built for sale or lease, this presumption may be rebutted. It appears the presumption has been rebutted by the affidavit signed by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, and if you agree, since the intention of building the home originally was not for sale or lease, but their own personal occupancy which intention is now changed, there would be no prohibition against the owners selling the home. This is with the assumption that it complies with all the Columbia County inspections and land development regulations. Also, your department would be authorized to issue a second building permit for these individuals to construct a home for their personal use.

If you have any additional questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to give me a call.

Very truly yours,

Marlin M. Feagle
