

DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY

MONROE L. MORRELL, SR.

I, MONROE L. MORRELL, SR., with an address of 1092 NW Morrell Drive, White Springs, Florida 32096, make, constitute and nominate (a) my daughter, MARILYN CLARICE HAMM, with an address of 921 SW Ridge Street, Lake City, Florida 32024, (b) my son, ROBERT WAYNE MORRELL, with an address of 225 NW 39th Avenue, Cape Coral, Florida 33993, and (c) my son, MONROE L. MORRELL, JR., with an address of 1935 Longpond Drive, Longwood, Florida 32779, to serve together as my agents (referred to herein collectively as my "agent"). When multiple agents are serving under this durable power of attorney, each such agent may act alone without the other agent or agents joining together. Furthermore, when multiple agents are named or serving hereunder and any one or more, but not all, die, become incapacitated, resign, or refuse to act, the remaining agent or agents, as the case may be, shall continue to serve in such capacity.

ARTICLE I

I hereby give and grant unto my said agent full power and authority to act for me in any lawful way with respect to the powers enumerated in Article II, and to the powers which I have initialed in Article III, of this durable power of attorney.

ARTICLE II

My agent is authorized to act for me in my name, place and stead and may exercise any or all of the powers contained in this Article II.

2.1 Banking and Other Financial Institution Transactions. With regard to banking and other financial institution transactions, my agent shall have the authority to conduct banking transactions as provided in section 709.2208(1), Florida Statutes. Specifically, my agent shall have the general authority to engage in the following transactions with financial institutions: (1) establish, continue, modify, or terminate an account or other banking arrangement with a financial institution; (2) contract for services available from a financial institution, including renting a safe-deposit box or space in a vault; (3) withdraw, by check, order, electronic funds transfer, or otherwise, money or property of the principal deposited with or left in the custody of a financial institution; (4) receive statements of account, vouchers, notices, and similar documents from a financial institution and act with respect to them; (5) purchase cashier's checks, official checks, counter checks, bank drafts, money orders, and similar instruments; (6) endorse and negotiate checks, cashier's checks, official checks, drafts, and other negotiable paper of the principal or payable to the principal or the principal's order, transfer money, receive the cash or other proceeds of those transactions, and accept a draft drawn by a person upon the principal and pay it when due; (7) apply for, receive, and use debit cards, electronic transaction authorizations, and traveler's checks from a financial institution; (8) use, charge, or draw upon any line of credit, credit card, or other credit established by the principal with a financial institution; and (9) consent to an extension of the time of payment with respect to commercial paper or a financial transaction with a financial institution.

2.2 Investment Transactions. With regard to stock and bond transactions, my agent shall have the authority to conduct investment transactions as provided in section 709.2208(2), Florida Statutes. Specifically, my agent shall have the general authority with respect to securities held by financial institutions or broker-dealers to take the following actions: (1) buy, sell, and exchange investment instruments; (2) establish, continue, modify, or terminate an account with respect to investment instruments; (3) pledge investment instruments as security to borrow, pay, renew, or extend the time of payment of a debt of the principal; (4) receive certificates and other evidences of ownership with respect to investment instruments; (5) exercise voting rights with respect to investment instruments in person or by proxy, enter into voting trusts, and consent to limitations on the right to vote; and (6) sell commodity futures contracts and call and put options on stocks and stock indexes. For purposes of this Section 2.2, the term "investment instruments" means stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and all other types of securities and financial instruments, whether held directly, indirectly, or in any other manner, including shares or interests in a private investment fund, including, but not limited to, a private investment fund organized as a limited partnership, a limited liability company, a statutory or common law business trust, a statutory trust, or a real estate investment trust, joint venture, or any other general or limited partnership; derivatives or other interests of any nature in securities such as options, options on futures, and variable forward contracts; mutual funds; common trust funds; money market funds; hedge funds; private equity or venture capital funds; insurance contracts; and other entities or vehicles investing in securities or interests in securities whether registered or otherwise, except commodity futures contracts and call and put options on stocks and stock indexes.

2.3 Real Property Transactions. With regard to real property transactions, my agent may exercise all of the following powers with regard to any real property I own: (1) convey or mortgage homestead property; (2) accept as a gift or as security for a loan or reject, demand, buy, lease, receive, or otherwise acquire an interest in real property or a right incident to real property; (3) sell, exchange, convey with or without covenants, quitclaim, release, surrender, mortgage, encumber, partition, consent to partitioning, subdivide, apply for zoning, rezoning, or other governmental permits, plat or consent to platting, develop, grant options concerning, lease or sublet, or otherwise dispose of an estate or interest in real property or a right incident to real property; (4) release, assign, satisfy, and enforce by litigation, action, or otherwise a mortgage, deed of trust, encumbrance, lien, or other claim to real property that exists or is claimed to exist; (5) do any act of management or of conservation with respect to an interest in real property, or a right incident to real property, owned or claimed to be owned by me, including power to insure against a casualty, liability, or loss; obtain or regain possession or protect the interest or right by litigation, action, or otherwise; pay, compromise, or contest taxes or assessments or apply for and receive refunds in connection with them; and purchase supplies, hire assistance or labor, or make repairs or alterations in the real property; (6) use, develop, alter, replace, remove, erect, or install structures or other improvements on real property in which I have or claim to have an estate, interest, or right; (7) participate in a reorganization with respect to real property or a legal entity that owns an interest in or right incident to real property, receive and hold shares of stock or obligations received in a plan or reorganization, and act with respect to the shares or obligations, including selling or otherwise disposing of the shares or obligations; exercising or selling an option, conversion, or similar right with respect to the shares or obligations; and voting the shares or obligations in person or by proxy; (8) change the form of title of an interest in or right incident to real property; and (9) dedicate easements or other real property in which I have or claim to have an interest to public use, with or without consideration.

2.4 Tangible Personal Property Transactions. With regard to tangible personal property transactions, my agent may exercise all of the following powers: (1) accept as a gift or as security for a loan, reject, demand, buy, receive, or otherwise acquire ownership or possession of tangible personal property or an interest in tangible personal property; (2) sell, exchange, convey with or without covenants, release, surrender, mortgage, encumber, pledge, hypothecate, create a security interest in, pawn, grant options concerning, lease or sublet to others, or otherwise dispose of tangible personal property or an interest in tangible personal property; (3) release, assign, satisfy, or enforce by litigation, action, or otherwise a mortgage, security interest, encumbrance, lien, or other claim on my behalf, with respect to tangible personal property or an interest in tangible personal property; and (4) do an act of management or conservation with respect to tangible personal property or an interest in tangible personal property on my behalf, including insuring against casualty, liability, or loss; obtaining or regaining possession or protecting the property or interest by litigation, action, or otherwise; paying, compromising, or contesting taxes or assessments or applying for and receiving refunds in connection with taxes or assessments; moving from place to place; storing for hire or on a gratuitous bailment; and using, altering, and making repairs or alterations.

2.5 Business Operation Transactions. With regard to business operation transactions, my agent may exercise all of the following powers: (1) operate, buy, sell, enlarge, reduce, or terminate a business interest; (2) to the extent that my agent is permitted by law, to perform a duty or discharge a liability or exercise a right, power, privilege, or option that I have, may have, or claim to have under a partnership agreement, whether or not I am a general or limited partner; (3) to the extent that my agent is permitted by law, to enforce the terms of a partnership agreement by litigation, action, or otherwise; (4) to the extent that my agent is permitted by law, to defend, settle, or compromise litigation or an action to which I am a party because of membership in the partnership; (5) exercise in person or by proxy or enforce by litigation, action, or otherwise a right, power, privilege, or option I have or claim to have as the holder of a bond, share, or other instrument of similar character and defend, settle, or compromise a legal proceeding to which I am a party because of a bond, share, or similar instrument; (6) with respect to any business owned solely by me, continue, modify, renegotiate, extend, and terminate a contract made with any individual or legal entity, firm, association, or corporation by or on my behalf with respect to the business before execution of the power of attorney; (7) with respect to any business owned solely by me, to determine the location of its operation; the nature and extent of its business; the methods of manufacturing, selling, merchandising, financing, accounting, and advertising employed in its operation; the amount and types of insurance carried; and the mode of engaging, compensating, and dealing with its accountants, attorneys, and other agents and employees; (8) with respect to any business owned solely by me, to change the name or form of organization under which the business is operated and enter into a partnership agreement with other persons or organize a corporation to take over all or part of the operation of the business; (9) with respect to any business owned solely by me, to demand and receive money due or claimed by me or on my behalf in the operation of the business and control and disburse the money in the operation of the business; (10) put additional capital into a business in which I have an interest; (11) join in a plan of reorganization, consolidation, or merger of the business; (12) sell or liquidate a business or part of it at the time and on the terms that my agent considers desirable; (13) establish the value of a business under a buy-out agreement to which I am a party; (14) prepare, sign, file, and deliver reports, compilations of information, returns, or other papers with respect to a business that are required by a governmental agency, department, or instrumentality or that my agent considers desirable and make related payments; and (15) pay, compromise, or contest taxes or assessments and do any other act that my agent considers desirable to protect me from illegal or unnecessary taxation, fines, penalties, or assessments with respect to a business, including attempts to recover, in any manner permitted by law, money paid before or after the execution of the power of attorney. My agent shall not have the power to submit to arbitration in any form, and specifically, my agent shall not sign an agreement which contains a pre-dispute binding arbitration clause.

2.6 Insurance Transactions. With regard to insurance transactions, my agent may exercise all of the following powers: (1) continue, pay the premium or assessment on, modify, rescind, release, or terminate a contract procured by or on my behalf that insures or provides an annuity to either me or another person, whether or not I am a beneficiary under the contract; (2) procure new, different, or additional contracts of insurance and annuities for me or my spouse, children, and other dependents and select the amount, type of insurance or annuity, and mode of payment; (3) pay the premium or assessment on or modify, rescind, release, or terminate a contract of insurance or annuity procured by my agent; (4) apply for and receive a loan on the security of the contract of insurance or annuity; (5) surrender and receive the cash surrender value of a contract of insurance or annuity; (6) exercise an election; (7) change the manner of paying premiums; (8) change or convert the type of insurance contract or annuity with respect to which I have or claim to have a power described in this section; (9) apply for and procure government aid to guarantee or pay premiums of a contract of insurance on my life; (10) collect, sell, assign, hypothecate, borrow on, or pledge my interest in a contract of insurance or annuity; and (11) pay from proceeds or otherwise, compromise or contest, or apply for refunds in connection with a tax or assessment levied by a taxing authority with respect to a contract of insurance or annuity or its proceeds or liability accruing because of the tax or assessment.

2.7 Estate, Trust, and Other Beneficiary Transactions. With regard to estate, trust, and other beneficiary transactions, my agent may act for me in all matters that affect a trust, probate estate, guardianship, conservatorship, escrow, custodianship, or other fund from which I am, may become, or claim to be entitled, as a beneficiary, to a share or payment, including to: (1) accept, reject, receive, receipt for, sell, assign, release, pledge, exchange, or consent to a reduction in or modification of a share in or payment from the fund; (2) demand or obtain by litigation, action, or otherwise money or any other thing of value to which I am, may become, or claim to be entitled because of the fund; (3) initiate, participate in, or oppose a legal or judicial proceeding to ascertain the meaning, validity, or effect of a deed, will, declaration of trust, or other instrument or transaction affecting my interest; (4) initiate, participate in, or oppose a legal or judicial proceeding to remove, substitute, or surcharge a fiduciary; (5) conserve, invest, disburse, or use anything received for an authorized purpose; and (6) transfer all or part of my interest in real property, stocks, bonds, accounts with financial institutions, insurance, and other property to the trustee of a revocable trust created by me as settlor.

2.8 Claims and Litigation. With regard to claims and litigation, my agent has the power to: (1) assert and prosecute before a court or administrative agency a claim, a claim for relief, a counterclaim, or an offset or defend against an individual, a legal entity, or a government, including suits to recover property or other thing of value, to recover damages sustained by me, to eliminate or modify tax liability, or to seek an injunction, specific performance, or other relief; (2) bring an action to determine adverse claims, intervene in an action or litigation, and act as amicus curiae; (3) in connection with an action or litigation, procure an attachment, garnishment, libel, order of arrest, or other preliminary, provisional, or intermediate relief and use an available procedure to effect or satisfy a judgment, order, or decree; (4) in connection with an action or litigation, perform any lawful act I could perform, including acceptance of tender, offer of judgment, admission of facts, submission of a controversy on an agreed statement of facts, consent to examination before trial, and binding of me in litigation; (5) settle, and propose or accept a compromise with respect to a claim or litigation; (6) waive the issuance and service of process on me, accept service of process, appear for me, designate persons on whom process directed to me may be served, execute and file or deliver stipulations on my behalf, verify pleadings, seek appellate review, procure and give surety and indemnity bonds, contract and pay for the preparation and printing of records and briefs, or receive and execute and file or deliver a consent, waiver, release, confession of judgment, satisfaction of judgment, notice, agreement, or other instrument in connection with the prosecution, settlement, or defense of a claim or litigation; (7) act for me with respect to bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings, whether voluntary or involuntary, concerning me or some other person, with respect to a reorganization proceeding or a receivership or application for the appointment of a receiver or trustee that affects my interest in real or personal property or other thing of value; and (8) pay a judgment against me or a settlement made in connection with a claim or litigation and receive and conserve money or other thing of value paid in settlement of or as proceeds of a claim or litigation.

2.9 Personal and Family Maintenance. With regard to personal and family maintenance, my agent may exercise all of the following powers: (1) perform the acts necessary to maintain the customary standard of living of me, my spouse and children, and other individuals customarily or legally entitled to be supported by me, including providing living quarters by purchase, lease, or other contract, or paying the operating costs, including interest, amortization payments, repairs, and taxes on premises owned by me and occupied by those individuals; (2) provide for the individuals described by Subsection (1) of this section normal domestic help, usual vacations and travel expenses, and funds for shelter, clothing, food, appropriate education, and other current living costs; (3) pay necessary medical, dental, and surgical care, hospitalization, and custodial care for the individuals described by Subsection (1) of this section; (4) continue any provision made by me for the individuals described by Subsection (1) of this section, for automobiles or other means of transportation, including registering, licensing, insuring, and replacing the automobiles or other means of transportation; (5) maintain or open charge accounts for the convenience of the individuals described by Subsection (1) of this section and open new accounts that my agent considers desirable to accomplish a lawful purpose; and (6) continue payments incidental to my membership or affiliation in a church, club, society, order, or other organization or to continue contributions to those organizations.

2.10 Benefits From Certain Governmental Programs or Civil or Military Service. With regard to benefits from social security, Medicare, Medicaid, or other governmental programs or civil or military service, my agent has the power to: (1) execute vouchers in my name for allowances and reimbursements payable by the United States, a foreign government, or a state or subdivision of a state to me, including allowances and reimbursements for transportation of the individuals described by Section 2.09(1) of this durable power of attorney, and for shipment of their household effects; (2) take possession and order the removal and shipment of my property from a post, warehouse, depot, dock, or other place of storage or safekeeping, either governmental or private, and execute and deliver a release, voucher, receipt, bill of lading, shipping ticket, certificate, or other instrument for that purpose; (3) prepare, file, and prosecute a claim to a benefit or assistance, financial or otherwise, to which I claim to be entitled under a statute or governmental regulation; (4) prosecute, defend, settle, and propose or accept a compromise with respect to any benefits I may be entitled to receive; and (5) receive the financial proceeds of a claim of the type described in this Section 2.10 of this durable power of attorney and conserve, invest, disburse, or use anything received for a lawful purpose.

2.11 Retirement Plan Transactions. With regard to retirement plan transactions, my agent may exercise all of the following powers: (1) apply for service or disability retirement benefits; (2) select payment options under any retirement plan in which I participate, including plans for self-employed individuals; (3) make voluntary contributions to retirement plans if authorized by the plan; (4) exercise the investment powers available under any self-directed retirement plan; (5) make "rollovers" of plan benefits into other retirement plans; (6) borrow from, sell assets to, and purchase assets from retirement plans if authorized by the plan; (7) receive, endorse, and cash payments from a retirement plan; and (8) request and receive information relating to me and my retirement plan records.

2.12 Tax Matters. With regard to tax matters, my agent may exercise all of the following powers: (1) prepare, sign, and file federal, state, local, and foreign income, gift, payroll, Federal Insurance Contributions Act, and other tax returns, claims for refunds, requests for extension of time, petitions regarding tax matters, and any other tax-related documents, including receipts, offers, waivers, consents, including consents and agreements under Section 2032A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the "Code"), closing agreements, and any power of attorney form required by the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authority with respect to a tax year on which the statute of limitations has not run and 25 tax years following that tax year; (2) pay taxes due, collect refunds, post bonds, receive confidential information, and contest deficiencies determined by the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authority; (3) exercise any election available to me under federal, state, local, or foreign tax law; (4) act for me in all tax matters for all periods before the Internal Revenue Service and any other taxing authority; and (5) represent me, and appoint an agent or agents to represent me, before the Internal Revenue Service or any State or other taxing authority by completing, signing, and submitting IRS Form 2848 or any other governmental form.

2.13 Existing and Foreign Interests. The powers described in Article II of this durable power of attorney may be exercised equally with respect to an interest I have at the time this durable power of attorney is executed or an interest which I acquire later, whether or not the interest is located in Florida and whether or not the powers are exercised or the durable power of attorney is executed in Florida.

ARTICLE III

My agent is authorized to perform the following specific acts for me if I have initialed the specific authority listed below:

Initial:

Power to Make Gifts to Qualify for Public Benefits. If my agent in my agent's sole discretion has determined that I need nursing home or other long-term medical care and that I will receive proper medical care whether I privately pay for such care or if I am a recipient of Title XIX (Medicaid) or other public benefits, then my agent shall have the power: (i) to take any and all steps necessary, in my agent's judgment, to obtain and maintain my eligibility for any and all public benefits and entitlement programs, including, if necessary, signing a deed with a retained life estate (also known as a "Lady Bird Deed") as well as creating and funding a qualified income trust or special needs trust for me or a disabled child, if any; (ii) to transfer with or without consideration my assets to my descendants (if any), or to my natural heirs at law or to the persons named as beneficiaries under my last will and testament or a revocable living trust which I may have established, including my agent; and (iii) to enter into a personal services contract for my benefit, including entering into such contract with my agent, and even if doing so may be considered self-dealing. Such public benefits and entitlement programs shall include, but are not limited to, Social Security, Supplemental Security Income, Medicare, Medicaid and Veterans benefits.

ARTICLE IV

Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, any authority granted to my agent shall be limited so as to prevent this durable power of attorney from causing my agent to be taxed on my income (unless my agent is my spouse) and from causing my assets to be subject to a general power of appointment by my agent, as that term is defined in Section 2041 of the Code.

ARTICLE V

Any act or thing lawfully done hereunder by my said agent shall be binding on myself and my heirs, legal and personal representatives, and assigns, provided, however, that all business transacted hereunder for me or for my account shall be transacted in my name, and that all endorsements and instruments executed by my said agent for the purpose of carrying out the foregoing powers shall contain my name, followed by that of my said agent and the designation "Agent."

ARTICLE VI

Any third party may transact any matter with my agent in the same manner and to the same extent as the third party would transact such matter with me. Third parties who act in reliance upon the representations of my agent shall be held harmless by me, my estate, the beneficiaries of my estate, or joint owners of property from any loss suffered or liability incurred as a result of actions taken prior to receipt of written notice of revocation, suspension, notice of a petition to determine incapacity, partial or complete termination, or my death. Any third party may rely upon a copy of this durable power of attorney certified by my agent to be a true copy of the original hereof, as fully as if such third party had received an original of this durable power of attorney.

ARTICLE VII

My agent shall not be liable for any acts or decisions made in good faith and in conformity with the powers enumerated in this durable power of attorney. However, my agent shall not be relieved from liability for breach of duty committed dishonestly, with improper motive, or with reckless indifference to me or the purposes of this durable power of attorney.

ARTICLE VIII

My agent shall have the power to pay a reasonable fee from my estate to each agent who is a qualified agent as defined in Section 709.2112(4), Florida Statutes as compensation for services rendered under this durable power of attorney in an amount which does not exceed the customary and prevailing charges for services of a similar character at the time and place such services are performed. My agent shall also be entitled to reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred on my behalf.

ARTICLE IX

I hereby revoke all durable general powers of attorney executed by me prior to the date of this power of attorney, and all such durable general powers of attorney shall no longer be of force and effect. All powers and authorities granted under said durable general powers of attorney are hereby withdrawn and revoked effective immediately. The provisions of this paragraph shall not revoke any power of attorney I have previously executed which is limited to a specific and identifiable action or transaction, such as a power of attorney I have executed as part of a contract for the management of a bank or brokerage account. If I desire to revoke any such prior limited or specific power of attorney, I will execute a revocation specifically referring to the power of attorney to be revoked.

ARTICLE X

This durable power of attorney is not terminated by subsequent incapacity of the principal except as provided in chapter 709, Florida Statutes. This durable power of attorney shall terminate by one or more of the following circumstances:

- (1) My death;
- (2) The death or deaths of all agents named in the first paragraph of this durable power of attorney; or
- (3) The occurrence of an event described in Section 709.2109, Florida Statutes.

Signed on the 10th day of February, in the year 2023.
