We are not concerned with getting a refund. Just need the permit to be withdrawn as there will be no work done.

Thank you.

Have a great day.

Good morning,

I can get this permit withdrawn. If you would like to get any money available back, you can send me a letterhead signed by the contractor requesting the permit be withdrawn, the reason why, and any monies owed returned. Please include the permit # and the address to have it sent to. The process for a return can take several months, as it has to go before the board. Thanks! Have a great day!
